TWO ALBANY HOMES HIT BY BURGLARS, PROWLERS

There has been a rash of burglary and prowler reports to the Albany Police Department within the past week, Chief Ralph M. Jensen reported.

Two Albany homes were burglarized during the night of Wednesday, October 4. Mrs. Margaret J. Croley of 847 Washington reported the disappearance from her bedroom study of a black brocade purse containing $4 in quarters, assorted keys and credit cards. Officer Ray Terrill and Sgt. Glen Thompson investigated.

Laura Byars of 764 Pierce lost $164 in a burglary of her ground floor apartment the same night. She reportedly heard someone in the kitchen and aroused her husband, who saw a man about 5 foot, eight, with long dark hair, crossing the street to the south. Mrs. Byars' large black purse was on the kitchen table and contained rent receipts she had collected that day. Sgt. Carl Lindh and Officer John Malone responded to the call.

Norma Rich of 953 Adams called the police department at 10:55 p.m. Wednesday, when she heard noises at the rear of her home. She reported having seen a man about six feet tall with long, black hair walking along the street looking at the houses. Officers Terrill and Thompson could find no trace of the person described.

Lawrence Carmelich of 841 Talbot reported someone trying to open his front door at 11:30 p.m., October 5.

Sunday afternoon, Sherri Royall, 11, of 821 Cerrito found Mrs. Croley's purse where it apparently had been discarded by the burglar two doors from the Croley home. The money was gone but most of the cards and papers were recovered, police reported.

White Cane Days Set By Lions For October 20-21

Art Linkletter, popular television star and national chairman of White Cane Days sponsored by Lions Clubs, International, yesterday named David Uehlein, a sightless youngster of the Los Angeles Foundation for Junior Blind, to symbolize the 1961 fund raising campaign.

White Cane Days this year will be held October 20 and 21 in California, Nevada and most other states.

This year will mark the 11th year that White Cane Days has been observed in which thousands of Lions Club members and their families pin miniature white canes, symbolic of the need for sight conservation, upon the lapels of citizens.

The tiny white canes are still made by Lions in Monterey Park on a crude machine constructed by the membership. These men now turn out thousands of miniature white canes for use by clubs in all states and in many foreign countries, providing them at actual cost in order to assure that all funds will be used to do the job intended. (Sixty men produce 1.5 million canes a year working nights, a total of over 2,000 free man hours of labor.)

Funds have been used to buy seeing eye dogs, provide medical care, and to purchase glasses and optometric services for indigent children and adults.

The Los Angeles Foundation for Junior Blind is a major recipient in Southern California and the Lions Hospital for Blind Youth in San Francisco is supported by Lions Clubs of central and northern California.

Albany To Help Celebrate Fire Prevention Week

National Fire Prevention Week (October 8-14) is more than a reminder of the tragedy that threatens when carelessness releases fire's destructive rage. It also renews the humbling annual picture of man's oldest problem being tackled by the tribe's youngest members.

All across the country this week, four million elementary school pupils enrolled in the Junior Fire Marshal program are learning — and earnestly applying — a lesson many adults have never taken to heart. That is, that the logical way to eliminate fires in the home is by applying fire safety rules before any fire can possibly break out.

During Fire Prevention Week, children in Albany Schools along with students in 15,000 other elementary schools throughout the country, will make a safety check of their homes. They will be guided by a 17-point home inspection report that will be distributed to them by the Albany Bureau of Fire Prevention during the Bureau's program in the schools.

In Albany, the program is sponsored by the Albany Association of Insurance Agents, the Albany Chamber of Commerce, the Fire Department and the co-operation of the elementary schools.

The statistics of fire's annual havoc are grim. More than 11,000 lives and a billion dollars worth of property are lost each year. The Junior Fire Marshal program inspires direct action to reduce these fearful figures.

When the youngsters check possible fire hazards in their homes, the entire family is alerted to fire prevention methods and emergency safety procedures.

An important aspect of this program is the Certificate of Merit earned by the youngsters — along with their badge — when they complete the safety inspection of their homes. The certificate, contained in the Junior Fire Marshal magazine the Hartford Insurance Company in cooperation with the fire department, distributes through the schools, is designed to be hung in the home as a year-round fire safety reminder.

Our youngsters learn their lesson by practicing fire prevention; it is to be hoped that the good habits will stay with them through adulthood. We might hope, also, that today's adults would observe and practice these same good habits.

Albany Hill Bothers Berkeleyans

Kind of an amusing controversy is being waged in the Berkeley Gazette concerning, of all things, Albany Hill.

It all started with an editorial on September 26, titled "The New Look on Albany Hill." This article told of the development of the 345-foot landmark, stating that it is the hope of some Albany civic leaders that some day the trees will be replaced with houses, apartments, even a hotel or motel. "And when that is done the East Bay will have taken another forward step."

A man living at Hawthorne Terrace fired back a letter to the editor, expressing amazement at the editorial.

"... Instead of writing about a 'forward step,' a newspaper with an ounce of civic leadership would have urged the citizens of Albany to get on their hind legs to save the eucalyptus grove on top of Albany Hill, so that they and their children could continue to find a retreat for picnics and hiking 'in the quiet whisper of the eucalyptus trees' and enjoy the spectacular view of the Bay and cities round about."

In the October 5th edition of the Berkeley Gazette, a man living on Grizzly Peak Blvd., threw his support behind preserving Albany Hill as "practically the only open space west of Sacramento Street." He wrote, "I believe that the hill must be saved from commercialization. I hope the citizens of the city of Albany agree with me and Mr. S. . . ."

Well, citizens of Albany, it's your hill. How do you feel about it?

Chamber Hi-Lites

Everyone wants a safe home — but did you know that each year approximately 65 per cent of all fires within buildings occur in homes — two thirds of the people who die as a result of fire lose their lives in these home fires?

Yes, everyone wants a safe home — but the majority of persons are uninformed about fire hazards — If they only knew what hazards were in their homes, they would do something about them — we'll you can. "Don't give fire a place to start." Your Albany Fire Department is offering, for your protection, a fire-safety inspection of your home. All you have to do is to fill in the information on the ad sponsored by your Chamber of Commerce and appearing in last week's and today's copy of the Albany Times, or telephone LA 5-7141. These home inspections are the answer to two-thirds of the fire problems — let's take advantage of this service to make Albany's record even better as a "Fire Safety City."

This is just one of the activities of your Albany Fire Department during this Fire Prevention Week, October 8-14 as proclaimed by President Kennedy and our own Mayor Joe Carlevaro. Congratulations to our outstanding Albany Fire Department and their never-ending effort to maintain Albany's excellent record.

Remember this is "Shop at Home" Month in Albany! Take special notice of all those dollar-saving buys in the special "Shop at Home" ads sponsored by your local merchants.

Would you like to spend your money and keep it too? Impossible? No, it's not really because you haven't seen the last of the money that you spend at home. It keeps right on working for the community and for you. Every dollar spent in Albany adds two or three dollars to the local trade volume as it passes from hand to hand. When you shop at home, you help your Albany business people pay the taxes and make the contributions that support your schools, civic services, and hospitals. If there was a breakdown of business in Albany, your property taxes would soar upward — city services downward — let's not let that happen in Albany!

Your Albany Y.M.C.A. will soon receive a check for $18.76 from the Pepsi Cola Bottling Company to be applied on the purchase of some needed athletic equipment. (Continued on Page 3)

Pre-School Here A Pioneer In Nursery Schools

By DOROTHY LARIMER

Albany Pre-School at 850 Masonic Avenue, a pioneer in parent-participation nursery schools, has served an estimated 2,000 Albany children and their mothers since its beginnings in 1937.

Unique in its sponsorship by the city, the school is a vital part of Albany's educational program, which provides training for children from the age of two through high school, not to mention the opportunities of the city's splendid adult education program.

Originally a project of the recreation department with the assistance of WPA funds, the school was located in Memorial Park and was under the direction of Miss Eleanor Quiggle. Because of the pressure of a long waiting list, the school was moved in 1938 to its present location, which permitted an enrollment increase of from 15 to 50 children.

By the time WPA terminated, the school was filling a vital need in the community, so the Albany City Council and Recreation Department moved to provide funds for a director rather than permit the group to dissolve.

Mrs. Nell Curran has been director of the school since 1939. In 1942, pre-school went under the adult education program instituting a series of 10 classes for new mothers.

DEMANDS ON MOTHER Those not acquainted with the school might imagine that mothers enroll their children in pre-school "to get rid of them three hours a day."

Actually, enrollment of her child in this school makes many demands on the mother; she must attend the prescribed 10 classes in pre-school techniques; she must serve as a mother-helper (or participate, as it is generally known) three hours every two weeks for each child enrolled; she must attend the monthly meetings of the Pre-School Mothers Club; she must have a physician's statement that she is in good health and have annual TB tests; she and her husband must give six hours work time to the summer clean-up week.

In addition, dues of $6 per month per child must be paid as well as a quarterly assessment of $1.25 for new equipment and other school expenses.

COUNCIL TO STUDY BUSINESS LICENSES

Considerable criticism having arisen over the city's ordinances governing business licenses the Albany council Monday night, after some discussion, determined to make a complete study of the problem. A work session accordingly has been called for Monday, October 16, to follow the regular council session.

The council heard a letter from the Albany Chamber of Commerce asking that such a study be made, in order to correct what were termed inequalities in the fees charged, especially those covering so-called "Home Industry". It was pointed out at a meeting of the Chamber's board of directors that many of these businesses conducted from a home address, have a volume of income far greater than many industries, stores, etc., yet pay a fee of only $2 per year as against the minimum regular business of $12. The fees for businesses are graduated from $12 upward depending upon the number employed.

Monday night's action covered items "2" and "5" on the regular agenda. Item "5" was a recommendation from Administrator Turner regarding a work session by the council to study this problem.

A report from Administrator Turner on the cost of removing weeds during the current year, brought a query from Councilman Boych regarding the use of chemicals rather than burning. Turner stated that such a method is being investigated, but that nothing could be done this year for lack of authoritative information. The Turner report was approved 4 to 0, Councilman Joel Parker being absent.

In the matter of adopting across the boards Blue Cross plan for city employees, the council unanimously ordered a resolution prepared instructing Turner to go ahead with the proposed plan.

Concerning the annual audit of the city's accounts, approval of the report was held up for one week at the request of Councilman Boych, but the bill submitted by the accounting firm, D.A. Sargent & Company, was unanimously approved.

Appointment of Clinton Standley as a probationary patrolman at the request of Chief Ralph Jensen was approved 3 to 0, Councilman Boych abstaining. He stated that he believed these approvals of appointments without thorough investigation by the council should not be made until an administrative survey had covered all angles of the matter.

Request for an additional street sign on Posen Street was heard, and the matter referred to Turner with instructions to go ahead if at all warranted.

Appointment of Mrs. Elda Foot to the part-time position of secretary to the Planning and Zoning Commission and the city engineer's office, was approved 3 to 0. Councilman Boych abstained. He stated that "in view of what had transpired he could not vote on the question", referring to political moves last year in opposition to his appointment to fill a vacancy on the city council by former mayor, Mrs. Zahn. Mrs. Foot will receive $1.90 per hour, effective as of October 6. Mrs. Foot's resignation from her post on the Planning and Zoning Commission was received and accepted.

The horticultural group met at Mrs. Forrest Albee's home to study in plants. A group of advanced flower arrangers are meeting at the home of Mrs. P. L. Hight study with Jack Daniels. Residents Urged To Take Flu Shots Now

Dr. Robert T. McMahon, Albany health officer, has urged residents, particularly those of three groups listed below, to obtain immunization against influenza, which is expected to hit hard in California this year.

Those advised to have the shots at their earliest convenience are persons of all ages who suffer from heart or lung ailments, pregnant women, and all persons over 65 years of age, the health officer said.

A mass immunization of city and school personnel is planned. It is advised that breadwinners and those in vital occupations avail themselves of the protection.

Public health authorities base their prediction of a possible epidemic on the fact that Asian Flu comes in two and three year cycles, and that we are overdue for Type B flu outbreaks, which come in four to six year cycles. Asian flu has been dormant here since March, 1960, and it has been more than six years since there was much Type B flu in this country.

Immunization should be administered as soon after September 1 as possible and no later than January 1, the Albany health officer said.

Albany Children Beaten, Undressed

Albany Police Department received three reports involving children this week.

The first involved a five-year-old girl who had been left at Terrace Park to play on Sunday, October 1. When her father went to get her, he found her undressed and encircled by a group of boys. One of the boys was identified and reprimanded.

A 12-year-old Albany boy was beaten by another lad in Memorial Park about 4 p.m. October 5. Officer Ray Terrill investigated. The assailant was not identified.

A 13-year-old Albany youth suffered a beating at the hands of seven boys while walking west on Portland about 5 p.m., October 5. One of the boys reportedly hit him on the head with a section of hose, causing a laceration. Five juveniles were later picked up by El Cerrito police at the Plaza. Two who physically assaulted him were identified as Oakland juveniles with previous records. They were turned over to juvenile authorities.

Other reports to the police department come from residents in the vicinity of Albany High School, who complain of fighting and the use of obscene language by high school students. Officials are investigating.

Live Oak Schedules Films of Mayaland

Live Oak Sunday Senior Citizens will present a program of slides entitled "Mayans" by Wesley Jones Sunday, October 15 at 2 p.m. at the Live Oak Recreation Center, 1301 Shattuck Avenue, Berkeley. Mrs. Ollah Gow, program chairman, announced today.

Elizabeth Orton To Attend Zonta Meet in Hawaii

Mrs. M. Elizabeth Orton of Ventura Avenue, Albany, president of the Zonta Club of San Francisco, a classified vice club for women with representation in 19 foreign countries, attended the District IX conference of Zonta International Honolulu, Hawaii, October 6 as her organization's delegate. Following the 3-day conference she was to tour several of the islands.

Mrs. Orton, vice president of the Zonta Machine Club of San Francisco, has been active in Bay Area Red Cross, club affairs during her residence in Albany. At Berkeley Women's City Club which she holds a founding membership, she organized the Volunteer Guards, active there in the years of the Club. She is a past member and a past officer of the Berkeley Etude Club. Orton is probably best known here through her work with the American National Red Cross. She started her volunteer work during World War II when she served as knitter, instructor and supervisor in the Berkeley Chapter. She was a member of the Chapter's Board of Directors and Chairman of the first aid and life saving program. Mrs. Orton was a member of the original faculty of the Evening High School, the first aid, when the school opened in 1941. The following year she became a staff member of Pacific Area, American National Red Cross, and served in capacity until her retirement in 1953.

CITY PRE-SCHOOL HAS BENEFITTED 2,000 CHILDREN

working mother and her child, several who work outside their homes have been enrolled. In case the mother herself is unable to take the course and participate, fathers or grandmothers have replaced her. The substitute must live in the home and have daily contact with the child.

WHO PAYS WHAT?
Under the present setup, the city, through the Albany Recreation Department, provides the building, utilities, custodian and two-thirds of Mrs. Curran's salary, all of the assistant director's salary and buys all equipment and supplies for the school. The Mother's Club pays a third of Mrs. Curran's salary.

Pre-School provides a happy secure environment for children from two to kindergarten age.

The routine allows for self-expression, teaches the necessity of living with others, instills self-reliance and self-discipline by encouraging each pupil to care for his own clothing, pour his own fruit juice, rest at an appointed time and put away his toys at the end of sessions.

In addition to its benefit to the child, the school assists the mother in being more comfortable with her child, to enjoy him more and to accept him as an individual. She learns that there are reasons for behavior problems and that all children go through stages as regular as the phases of the moon. After working with a group of children, she usually comes to realize that her child is a delightful individual, no better perhaps, but certainly no worse than others in his age group.

ADVANTAGES

There are many advantages for the child who attends pre-school, which is geared to help him toward a healthy development socially, emotionally and physically through adequate play opportunities under helpful supervision.

So early, he learns to share, to get along with others, and that he has a responsibility to the group. Hopefully, he comes to realize early in life that while this is a friendly world, there are certain rules which must be observed.

Intellectually and aesthetically, he is awakened to various types of play, to books, puzzles, simple art, music, to the necessity of building from a solid foundation (putting big blocks on the bottom). Both large and small muscles are developed through proper use of a wide variety of equipment.

Habits are more easily adjusted in a group situation. When everyone is doing the same thing, it is less difficult to learn proper toilet, eating and language habits.

Children who are overly shy, the bully, the non-talker, the child who has to be amused have been helped to overcome their problems at the school. Tension in the home is relieved when the child finds security for part of his day. The child who has had pre-school experience is more ready for kindergarten.

CLASS TIMES

Pre-school classes for children from two to three years and 10 months are held from 9 a.m. to noon five days weekly, except for holidays observed by the city. Those from three years, 10 months to kindergarten age attend from 1:30 to 4:30 in the afternoon. There are a few openings in the afternoon group this fall, Mrs. Curran has announced.

Highest health standards are observed. Before enrollment, the child must be examined by his physician, who is asked to fill out a written report of the youngster's condition. In addition, daily health checks are conducted for symptoms of colds, rashes or other irregularities. Children with colds are excluded from the group for a minimum of five days.

Albany residents may well take pride in this splendid little school, which has enriched the lives of hundreds upon hundreds of youngsters and their parents. Open to all families within the city limits, Albany Pre-School stands as a monument to those far-sighted persons who realize that the enchanting cherub of today becomes the citizen of to-

ADOPTED SON OF LOCAL RESIDENT APPEARS IN SWISS 'HAMLET'

When the curtain rises on a forthcoming Swiss production of Shakespeare's "Hamlet", one of the roles will be enacted by a vicariously local boy.

What is unusual about the boy's portrayal in the Bard's complex and melancholy drama, is that until two and a half years ago he could not speak English.

The newly emerged thespian is Orhan A. Rogers, 18, a high school junior at the Institut auf dem Rosenberg, famed international boarding school at St. Gallen, Switzerland, which is producing the play this fall.

Orhan, adopted son of Francis C. Rogers of 1241 Solano Avenue, is Turkish by birth and attended schools in Turkey until the past year, when he attended the American military dependent high school in Madrid, Spain. He was enrolled in the Swiss school early this summer at the time of his father's return to California.

In addition to a heavy science preparatory curriculum including senior mathematics subjects, English, advanced history and German, he has been re-elected student leader for the school year, an elective position he held during the summer classes. He is also active in school sports, chess, and in the Music Club and other school clubs.

He is the beneficiary of pending private legislation to permit his entry into the United States, but although his permanent residence here may be delayed until the end of the school year next summer, he is anticipating spending Christmas holidays at home in Albany.

Albany Post VFW To Honor Veteran Arthur King

More than 400 members of the Veterans of Foreign Wars and their ladies will gather at the Albany Veterans Memorial Building on Saturday evening, October 21, to honor veteran Department Service Officer, Arthur King.

Included will be VFW officers and members from the more than 40 posts in Alameda and Contra Costa Counties, as well as officers from the 14th District VFW and from the Department of California. Joseph Farber, the State Director of Veteran Affairs, will head a group of state and other government officials concerned with veterans affairs.

Commander Henry Bellerive has appointed past post and past district commander Ralph Beemer as general chairman of the evening. There will be a reception at 6:30 followed by a testimonial dinner and the presentation of gifts. Music, and a program of outstanding entertainment has also been lined up for the enjoyment of those attending.

All post members who have not obtained tickets are urged to do so promptly from Post Quartermaster Lavern Anderson. The demand is heavy, and the number of tickets limited, so those wishing tickets are urged to apply early. The evening will give some of the many thousand veterans and members of their families whom Art King has aided over the years a chance to say "Thank You."

Gary Hall Spurs Cougar Upset Of St. Mary's

Albany High Cougars upset favored St. Mary's High by a stunning 18-0 at Cougar Field Friday afternoon.

Albany's first score came late in the first period and the Cougars led 6-0 at the half. Late in the third quarter, halfback Bill Alameda blocked a punt and recovered the ball on St. Mary's 10 yard line. Triple-threat Gary Hall, tailback, whose stellar performance had enabled Bob Kantor to score the first touchdown, made the touchdown pass to the Cougars' right end Lee Carlson with 3:28 remaining in the third quarter.

It was Hall all the way in the final quarter, when on third down with 24 yards to go, Hall fired a 15-yard pass to Kantor. Kantor ran six yards to the six and Hall hit Carlson in the end zone for the final score.

The Cougars meet John Swett Indians in their first league game Friday afternoon at Cougar Field.

Ford introduces for 1962 two distinguished new series: Galaxie & Galaxie/500

Enduring elegance... with the power to please

With Thunderbird styling . . . Swift as a rumor, silent as a secret, Galaxie '62 has the timeless distinction and talent for travel of the Thunderbird that inspired it.

Every quick quiet mile whispers: here is a new standard of quality. And every luxurious detail confirms it. This is the car that introduces twice-a-year maintenance. Routine service is reduced to 30,000 miles on many items such as major lubrications, twice a year or 6,000 miles on the rest.

We suggest you see the new Galaxie and Galaxie/500 (shown above) for yourself. We are confident you will agree: it's pointless to pay more — or settle for less.

Now . . . twice-a-year maintenance reduces service to a minimum!
